

LOCAL IN BRIEF

A. Hord, of Blackburn, was down Monday.

Four cases of small pox are reported at Blackburn.

Mrs. Hugh Crisman, of the county, was a recent visitor.

Capt. Steve Price returned Sunday night from Kansas City.

W. H. Leyburn, of Slater, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Misses Mabel and Nadine Fisher left Friday for Kansas City.

Miss Newmeyer, of Kirksville, is the guest of Miss Edyth Carpenter.

P. G. Simpson, of St. Louis, was the guest of friends here Sunday.

F. H. Brockway, of Arrow Rock, spent Friday with Marshall friends.

Loomis' home made candles are the best. Try them and be convinced. 43-45

Miss Lyda Conan, of Pilot Grove, is visiting Miss Maude Owens in this city.

A. S. VanAnglen and wife of Malta Bend, were visitors in Marshall Saturday.

Turkey dinner is not complete without fresh oysters. Get the best at Loomis'. 43-45

Mrs. C. P. Duncan, of Kansas City, is visiting O. Houx and family on North street.

Miss Sarah Martin is afflicted with a sore eye that is giving her considerable trouble.

Misses Maude and Con Taylor, of Elk Hill, were guests of Mrs. J. S. M. Huff this week.

Rev. C. Thomas is preaching every evening this week at Saline church to good audiences.

Ed T. Orear, of Jefferson City, spent Sunday night and part of Monday here transacting business.

Miss Mary King, of Shackelford, was the guest this week of J. B. Pryor and family on Highland.

Ed Wood, wife and little son have returned from a visit to Oklahoma and Cherryville, Kansas.

Dean Clough and daughter, Miss Polly, will return this week from an extended visit to Montana.

Mace Brown, a prominent banker of Sweet Springs, was the guest of Mrs. James Wingfield on Monday.

Mrs. Turpin, the guest of Mrs. J. S. Kelly for some weeks, returned to her home in Louisville, Ky., Friday.

Miss Minnie King returned Friday from Slater, where she spent several days very pleasantly with friends.

Mrs. R. E. L. Smith and children returned Sunday night from a visit to J. W. Goodwin and wife at Alma.

Mrs. C. Kelley has returned from a visit to Slater friends and was the guest of Miss Helen Fisher on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Tyler and daughters, Misses Mary, Alice and Anna, of Arrow Rock, were in Marshall Friday.

Harry Jones of the class of 1900 has returned to Missouri Valley College and is taking a post-graduate course.

J. P. Huston celebrated his 40th birthday recently by entertaining a number of gentlemen friends at dinner.

Rev. B. T. Wharton and family took Thanksgiving dinner with Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Carter on East Arrow street.

Miss Lottie Wronker returned Monday to the University at Columbia, after a pleasant visit to her parents in this city.

R. V. Montague has been quite lame since Friday, when he was kicked by a young colt, that he was trying to manage.

John Watts, the accommodating prescription clerk with the Smith Drug Company, is out again after a short sick spell.

Miss Bessie Peddicord, of Winchester, Kentucky, and Mrs. A. L. Liggett, guests of Mrs. J. W. Winning left this week.

Mrs. Frank Shepherd left Friday for her home in Colorado Springs, after a short but pleasant visit to Mrs. I. N. Seargeant.

Mrs. Mary Slater, of Elmwood, was in Marshall Saturday, she having closed her school for a week on account of diphtheria.

O. E. Greehan was called to his home in Blosser Monday on account of the illness of his mother, who is reported better as we go to press.

Mrs. Willie M. Wood and daughter, Miss Fannie have been spending the week with Mrs. C. M. Buckner, at her home on Brunswick.

Harry Herndon returned to New Franklin Saturday after spending Thanksgiving with the family of Carol Logsdon on Capitol Hill.

E. E. Conway, A. L. Jurden and George N. Orear left Sunday for South Canadian, Indian Territory, where they will spend the week hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Jurden entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kingery, of Kansas City, Ed Conway and wife and Miss Mary Ellis at dinner on Friday.

Ralph Duggins of the State University returned to Columbia Monday, after a short vacation with his parents.

BARGAINS

Pianos and Organs.

|   |          |
|---|----------|
| Mason & Hamlin Organ.....                                   | $ 19 00 |
| George Wood Organ.....                                      | 25 00    |
| Estey Organ, price $1.25.....                              | 65 00    |
| Mason & Hamlin Organ—$125                                  | 75 00    |
| Farrand & Votey Organ—$125                                 | 78 00    |
| Kimball Organ—$125.....                                    | 75 00    |
| Piano worth $75.....                                       | 39 00    |
| Piano worth $150.....                                      | 85 00    |
| Very fine, High grade square Piano, former price $800..... | 195 00   |
| Beautiful upright piano, price $325.....                   | 195 00   |

C. N. RAND

MARSHALL, MO.

Diamond Rings and Set Rings of all Kinds.... Plain Rings the Best Made..

Brooches Sunbursts in Diamond and Pearl Stick Pins in Endless Variety Everything in Jewelry.

Clocks, Watches, Sterling Silver, Cut Glass and Ebony Goods

All of which we would be glad to show you. We think we can give you prices that will please you. Come and try us. Fine watch repairing a specialty. North side of the square.

MAUCH & ADAMS.

D. D. Duggins and family in this city.

Robert Sandidge and little son, Robert, passed through this city Saturday for Arrow Rock to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Nancy Sites.

Mrs. William Cobb and children, Mrs. Richardson and Miss Lucy Wagner returned Saturday to Norborne, after a visit to T. T. Cobb and family.

The friends of Mr. A. Peecher will be glad to know that he was able to make a little visit Saturday to the store, it having been three months since he was last there.

Col. and Mrs. James Gordon entertained the following persons at dinner last week: Mrs. M. G. Goodson and daughters, Misses Ella and Mary, Emily and Nora Robertson.

Mrs. A. Rumrums entertained the following persons at dinner recently: George Hatton and wife, Homer Hatton, wife and children, Theodore Huff and family and Marvin Barnes.

Rev. E. E. Morris, who came home to officiate at the Olson-Dysart wedding returned Friday morning to Bunceon where he is assisting Rev. B. Margeon in a protracted meeting.

Mrs. June K. King has recently sold some very fine bronze turkeys to parties at Fredonia, Kansas, for $2 a piece. She has several of them still on hand at her country home north of town.

Misses Clara Brown and Virginia Young were entertained while in Boonville by M. H. Brewster at the Reform School. Dr. and Mrs. Holman of Boonville were also of the party.

Miss Mary Breathed, who returned last week from Kansas City, made a short visit to Mrs. M. M. Marmaduke and family and Miss Ethlyne Jackson. She left Saturday for her home in Nelson.

Harry H. Parsons of Marshall, former republican candidate for congress in the 7th district, was shooting quails in this vicinity last Saturday. While here he was the guest of Flem Marshall—Blackwater News.

James Ryan, of New York city, who has been in Excelsior for some weeks on account of his health, was called to this city this week on account of the death of his brother-in-law, John Kellet, whose remains were brought here from Salt Lake City.

Rev. W. R. Dobyns preached a fine sermon on Sunday morning to his congregation at St. Joseph, it being the anniversary of his first year's pastorate in that city. A collection was taken up on this occasion amounting to over $4,000, to be used for the incidental expenses of the church.

The REPUBLICAN in a recent article referring to the entertainment of the Bankers' Association in Higginsville, accredited to the Arcade Hotel the excellent dinner served upon that occasion, which should have been to the Merchants, of which Mrs. Frazier formerly of Malta Bend, is the accommodating proprietress.

Hutchings for fine photographs. Established 1895. 'Phone 256. 22